President Warns Against Red Intervention in Egypt

General Strike In Hungary Is Spreading Fast

Budapest (AP)—Passive resistance against Russia's puppet Hungarian government continued today throughout the battered nation. Speculation grew that Yugoslavia's President Tito may have to intervene to settle the stalemate.

Much of the revolution-wrecked country remained idle in the throes of a virtual general strike. Factories were crippled, workers stayed away from their jobs, transportation was broken down, food was desperately short, and Russian tanks remained on the street.

Opposition to the Soviet-installed government of Premier Janos Kadar spread even to the regime's own newspaper, Szabad Nep.

Journalists and printers at the paper's printing shop joined the nationwide strike and refused to put out today's issue. The newspaper had been the only one printed in Budapest since Russian tanks rolled into the capital Nov. 4 and put the Kadar government in power.

Many middle-of-the-road Hungarian politicians looked to Tito as the only man who might solve the dilemma in which the Kadar government has been rendered impotent by the passive resistance of the rebellious Hungarians and even of diehard Communists.

The Yugoslav ambassador to Budapest went to Belgrade yesterday, while the former Hungarian Communist Premier brought to power briefly by the revolt, Imre Nagy, remained in refuge here in the Yugoslav Embassy.

Summing Up Under Way in the Hoxsey Cancer Clinic Case

Pittsburgh, (AP)—The government today summed up its arguments in the Hoxsey Cancer Clinic trial, leaving only the judge's charge to be made before the jury begins deliberations, probably tomorrow on disposition of a half-million pills seized at the Portage, Pa., clinic.

Atty. William W. Goodrich, counsel for the U. S. Food and Drug Administration, reiterated his contention that the Portage clinic does not have a cure for cancer.

The government wants to destroy the pills because it said they are worthless in cancer treatment and were misbranded when they were confiscated in the March, 1955, raid on the Portage clinic.

According to the government, the pills involved in the trial are similar to those developed and used by Harry M. Hoxsey in his cancer treatment method. Hoxsey, a Dallas, Tex., naturopath, is not on trial.

Hoxsey said he attended the trial only as an interested party.

Youngsville Kiwanians Enjoy Annual Charter Night Program

Youngsville Kiwanis Club enjoyed a delightful dinner and program last evening in the elementary school gym in its annual observance of Charter Night.

Approximately 75 persons were seated at tables centered with attractive floral arrangements and placed against a dark red backdrop centered by the Kiwanis Emblem. The invocation was given by Pastor C. J. Franzen, of Saron Lutheran church, and Jesse Lyon led the group singing.

Toastmaster Frank Schumacher welcomed and introduced the following guests: Dr. Lee Berger, president of the Warren club, who spoke briefly; Frank Geiger of Erie, lieutenant governor of Division One, who urged the club to increase its membership; Ray Weber, Corry, first president of the club.

Also Robert Spencer, Youngsville, third past president; Elton Barton, Youngsville, immediate past president; Mr. and Mrs. Everett Stokes, Warren.

Attending Traffic Conference

Four juniors from Driver Education Class at Warren High School are in Edinboro today attending a Teen-Age Safety Conference. They are part of a group of about 150 from the five-county Northwestern District who are meeting to discuss traffic safety problems and bring back ideas to promote the safety program in their various high schools. Polish Leaders To Talk With Soviet Bosses

Warsaw, Poland (AP)—Communist party boss Wladyslaw Gomulka and three other Polish leaders left by train today for consultations in Moscow, ignoring warnings from some party members that it might be wiser to forego the trip.

Gomulka is said to be seeking a reduction of the number of Soviet troops stationed in Poland and the uprising in Hungary against Russian domination is expected to be a prime argument in his case.

He was accompanied by Premier Jozef Cyrankiewicz, Maj. Gen. Alexander Zawadzki of the politburo, chief planner Stefan Jerczowski and a large group of economic and military advisers.

The party boss, who has taken the lead in shaking off a large measure of Soviet interference in Poland, had received resolutions from a number of Communist party branches warning against the trip.

The pronationalists faction had finally won the ouster of Soviet-trained Marshal Konstantin Kokossovsky as defense minister and deputy premier.

The visit had been scheduled for last month, shortly after Gomulka returned to power and placed Poland on a "nationalist" course. But the departure was delayed by the crisis in Hungary.

Cab Driver Is Winner Of $64,000 TV Prize

New York (AP)—Thomas J. Kane an Irish-born cab driver with a scholar's knowledge of the English language won $64,000 last night on a television quiz show.

Kane, 49, of Lockport, N. Y., was the sixth contestant to cop the top prize on CBS-TV's The $64,000 Question in the show's history.

Warren B.P.W. Club Becomes Member Of The Area C. of C.

The Warren Business and Professional Woman's Club was accepted as a member of the Warren Area Chamber of Commerce last night at a meeting of the Chamber's board of directors held in the Blue and White restaurant.

In proposing the BPW Club for membership, the Chamber membership committee spokesman, George Redding, complimented the women's organization on taking the initiative to support the Chamber program and expressed the hope that other groups would consider similar action so that the Chamber could become a greater force in the community.

Miss Arvilla Tittel is president of the BPW and will be the club's official delegate in Chamber of Commerce matters.

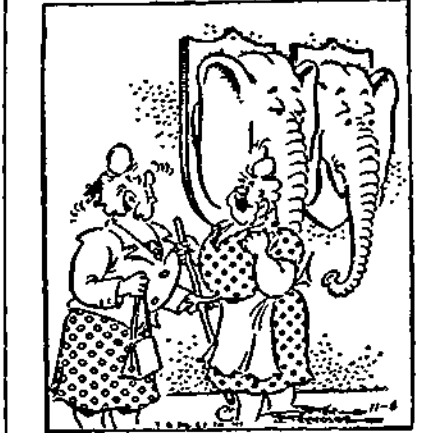

The Board learned last night that the membership of the Warren Chamber has grown in the past year to 465 and that a drive in early 1957 will raise the figure to 500 if successful.

Neil Culbertson presided at last night's meeting and called for reports on current projects which include a Housing Survey, Airport Improvement, Highway Transportation, and Christmas street lighting.

NEW TRAFFIC RECORD

Rochester, N. Y., (AP)—Charles F. Ferhan, 37, a school teacher, has been charged with driving too fast and not fast enough on the same street. He was arrested Oct. 17 for speeding 40 miles an hour. Now he has been charged with impeding traffic by driving 6 miles an hour. He said he was looking for the home of a former pupil.

Fire Destroys Home on Fifth Ave. Extension

Three young children, their mother, grandmother and a nephew barely escaped with their lives this morning as flames shot through the Herman E. Shirley residence on East Fifth Avenue Extension and burned the home to the ground.

The nephew, Robert Ford, 17, was asleep upstairs when the blaze broke out in the kitchen. He had to break through an upstairs window and jump two stories to safety. The scattered glass cut him as he rolled to break the fall.

Mrs. Florence Shirley reported she was not feeling well and had lain down in a first floor bedroom. She roused when she heard the children screaming "Mommy, the house is on fire."

CLOTHING NEEDED FOR THE CHILDREN
The Shirley family group, consisting of eleven persons, lost all their possessions, including clothes. Anyone wishing to contribute articles or clothing for the children ranging in age from 17 years to nine months may call the Harry Joneses at 4185-W.

Her two young daughters, Cheryl Lynn, aged 2½, and Betty Jane, 3½, had been in the living room playing with their grandmother, Mrs. Cora Cochran, when they saw the flames spouting from the partition between the bedroom and kitchen.

Mrs. Shirley ran through the living room and into the kitchen. There she picked up a bucket and attempted to douse the blaze with a couple of painful. When she saw this was fruitless Mrs. Shirley ran back into the living room and started looking up the fire department number while all the excited family shouted to wake up. (Turn to Page Twelve)

Confederate Soldier Turns 114 Years Today

Franklin, Tex. (AP)—Walter W. Williams, forage master in Hodd's Texas Brigade who has seen the South outlive the North, turned 114 today.

His family canceled the usual celebration because of the illness of his second wife, 83. She is suffering from a heart ailment, hardening of the arteries and kidney trouble.

Williams, the nation's oldest living ex-soldier and one of three surviving Confederates, said he was sorry to hear last spring that the last Union Army veteran had died. But, he added, "It just goes to show what I've always said, the South is going to outlive the North."

Flowers from friends and relatives all over the nation poured in as the colorful old soldier celebrated his tamed birthday in recent years.

Take-Off of U. N. Units for Cairo Postponed Another 24 Hours; Blame Disagreements

By THOMAS J. STONE
Capodichino Staging Area, Italy (AP)—The takeoff of U. N. police force units for Egypt was postponed another 24 hours today, but political and supply problems indicated the delay might be even longer.

As new arrivals swelled the growing force to more than 300 men, a Swiss air spokesman announced, "The earliest possibility for taking off for Cairo is 8 a. m. tomorrow (2 a. m., EST)."

Supply and housing problems and disagreement between Egypt and Britain, France and Israel on the force's mission were seen as the reasons for the postponements. U. N. officials at the staging area appeared to be waiting for the completion of landing arrangements between the Egyptians and U. N. headquarters in New York.

One high source said that "probably the Egyptians are making more complications about landing."

While the U. N. troops stood by in Italy, a team of 12 U. N. truce observers from Palestine landed at Port Said and drove immediately to the front lines at El Cap, south of the port. They sped past the forward British and Egyptian positions and headed for Ismailia to talk with Egyptian officials on the movement of the police force into the area.

Until the arrival of the bulk of the U. N. force, the chief mission of the 12 observers will be to help keep the cease-fire along the 600-yard-wide no man's land in the canal zone.

U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold had been scheduled to arrive in Rome today to confer with Canadian Maj. E. L. M. Burns, commander of the new force, and to inspect the assembling U. N. troops before going on to Cairo to meet with the Egyptians. The secretary general postponed his departure from New York until this afternoon, ostensibly to work on arrangements of relief to revolt-torn Hungary.

The ranks of the force gathering outside Naples were increased during the night by the arrival of 65 Danish infantry troops, 53 Norwegians and the first 21 Canadians. More soldiers from all three countries were expected later today.

Looming over the U. N. operation were conditions laid down by Egypt for the policing role and the conflicting British, French and Israeli positions.

The annual American Education Week Parents' Night at Warren High School proved most successful last evening, with about 400 persons in attendance.

Anne Putnam and Ray Bennett, senior class co-presidents, welcomed the parents gathered in the school auditorium and gave a brief history of the senior class and an account of its activities. Their welcome was followed by talks given by representatives of various school organizations:

Fran Wooster, Student Council; Ann Wendelboe, Dragon Band; George Rasmussen, Spanish Club; Betty DeLong, Future Nurses of America; Jim Griffin, Lettermen's Association; Mary Massa, Girls' Athletic Association; Don Brian, Library Club; Henry Lauman, German Club; Ed Rickerson, Art Club; Janet Whitmore, Future Teachers of America.

Tom McCune, Orchestra; Gloria Schaffer, Stenographers' Club; Ray Bennett, A Cappella Choir; Harold McNulty, National Honor Society; Margaret Bailey, Future Homemakers of America; Dick Aldrich, Dramatics Club; Tom Shafer, Latin Club; and Paul Mahaffey, Rifle Club.

The parents then visited teachers in rooms of their choice, ending up in the home economics room, where coffee and cookies, prepared by second-year students, were served. Homemaking students who served were Sandra Lee Burch, Marilyn Jensen, Ann Cashman, Sally Toner, Susan Johnson, Carol Wilson, Judi Barnhart, and Norma Sponsler.

The meeting followed a delightful Eighty Birthday Dinner in the fire hall. Chief Clair Wilcox reported on the attendance at the county meeting of volunteer firemen and the progress of the new selective call system. It was reported the department made a call to Warren Planning Mill last Sunday. Little damage had been caused.

Robert Schuman's name was called for the attendance prize. His absence carries the award over to next month. Lunch committee is also to be carried over a month.

A dance for members and friends of the department was announced for Nov. 24th in the fire hall.

Regular active committees reported and trustees gave their report of inspection of the physical properties of the department along with recommendations of repairs and improvements which should be made.

FACES LONG TERM
Pittsburgh, (AP)—Chester S. Brubaker, 38, today began a 20 to 40-year penitentiary term for two armed robberies, a burglary and the brutal beating of his wife. Brubaker, who was sentenced yesterday, pleaded guilty to taking about $1,400 worth of narcotics in the thefts here earlier this year. He fled to Cleveland where he was arrested last March.

NATURE OF OPPOSITION TO DEPEND ON CIRCUMSTANCES; POLICE FORCE UNIT DELAYED

Moscow (AP)—An Arab source said today Egyptian ambassador Mohammed El Kony has been instructed by his government to request the immediate dispatch of Soviet "volunteers" to Egypt.

The Soviet government has said it would permit Soviet citizens who volunteered for service to the Middle East to go there if their presence was requested.

By MARTIN L. ARROWSMITH
Washington (AP)—President Eisenhower said today the United States would oppose—probably through the United Nations—any intervention in Egypt by Soviet or Chinese Communist volunteers.

The President left up in the air just what form such opposition might take.

He told a news conference, his first since re-election, that the nature of such opposition would depend upon the specific circumstances of any intervention.

There have been reports that up to 50,000 Soviet volunteers were ready to move into the Middle East if Moscow should give the word.

Dan Shorr, a CBS correspondent in Moscow, said in a broadcast from the Soviet capital today there was reliable information that Egypt had asked for Russian volunteers. Shorr was cut off the air when he started to enumerate details of the volunteer force.

A week ago, the White House issued a statement saying that the introduction of any new armed forces in Egypt "would violate the U. N. charter, and it would be the duty of all U. N. members, including the United States, to oppose any such effort."

In the light of that statement Eisenhower was asked today what form U. S. opposition would take under such circumstances.

He replied it was impossible for him to say at this point.

Then he commented that the U. N. is not restricted, as he put it, to adoption of resolutions.

The President added that he was not going to say the United States would make a unilateral determination—that is a decision by itself—about how to handle such intervention. He noted that last week's White House statement said it would be the duty of U. N. member countries to oppose intervention.

Eisenhower said this country certainly would lend support to any U. N. action. It was at this point that he added that the action need not be restricted to adoption of resolutions.

The President said there was one case in which the U. N. did more than pass a resolution. Although he did not say so, Eisenhower presumably was referring to U. N. intervention in Korea.

The President expressed hope and confidence that the current crisis in the Middle East and in Hungary can be settled through the U. N.

He also said he believes that once those situations have been resolved, U. S. relations with Britain and France will be stronger than ever.

Eisenhower's news conference drew 258 reporters. This compares with an average of a little over 200 for recent meetings with reporters but is well short of the record 312 who attended his first news conference after his heart attack last year.

Retailers Plan For Visit Of Santa to Boro Next Wednesday

The Retailers Committee of the Chamber of Commerce announced this morning that it was providing a Christmas mailbox so that all area boys and girls can write their letter to Santa Claus and be assured of receiving an answer before December 25th. The committee met this morning for breakfast and completed their plans for the Christmas season.

The arrival of Santa Claus has been scheduled for Wednesday afternoon, November 21 at 4:30 p. m. which is also the first Wednesday on which merchants will be open all day. The Christmas edition of the Times-Mirror will also appear on that afternoon.

Coinciding with the arrival of Santa to Warren will be the turning on of the overhead street lights which are now being erected by the Bevevino Electric Company. In addition the merchants of the "400 block" on Pennsylvania avenue are providing a large community Christmas tree to be placed on the vacant Carver Hotel lot at the corner of Pennsylvania avenue and Hickory street.

Children of all ages are invited to be in Warren next Wednesday to see Santa Claus ride through town and distribute candy to the youngsters along the parade route. Starting in the east side shopping center, Santa's caravan will travel west to the downtown business section and complete his journey at the community tree on the Carver lot. The Christmas mailbox will also be ready that afternoon so boys and girls can bring their letters and deposit them for delivery to the North Pole as soon as possible.

Additions and improvements to the overhead street lighting are being made this year with two new locations and the Retailers Committee will solicit all business firms this week in order to raise the necessary funds to pay for the project.

Secretary Awaits Word From Hungary On Relief Mission

BULLETIN

United Nations, N. Y., (AP)—The United States was reported today to feel that Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold should fly to the Middle East without further delay to try to head off the entry of Soviet "volunteers" into Egypt. The secretary general was scheduled to leave New York at 6 p. m. EST for Rome on his way to accompany the U. N. police force into the battle area. U. N. officials said, however, that another last-minute postponement was possible.

By TOM HOGG

United Nations, N. Y., (AP)—U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold awaited word from Communist Hungarian authorities today whether he will be permitted to lead a U. N. relief mission into the revolt-torn satellite.

Hammarskjold confirmed last night that he had approached Hungarian Foreign Minister Imre Horvath on the question.

Hungary's Moscow-installed regime had rejected an Assembly proposal to send a team of observers to check on compliance with the Assembly's demand for withdrawal of Soviet forces and the holding of free elections. The Budapest government later agreed to let in relief supplies with U. N. representatives supervising the program on the spot.

Hammarskjold delayed his departure for the Middle East to work on arrangements for the relief of Hungary. A spokesman said he would leave this afternoon.

The General Assembly overrode Soviet objections 62-9 last night and agreed to debate the Hungarian question. The delegates also voted to take up the issue directly without first clearing it through the Political Committee.

GOVERNOR OPENS CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE

The governor of Pennsylvania, George M. Leader and his wife, shown here in the executive mansion at Harrisburg, as they opened the 50th annual Christmas Seal sale, by purchasing the first seals from two Hanover school children. In the group are left to right, Jeffrey Miller, nine, Mrs. Leader, the governor, Elizabeth Graybill, eight, and standing, John H. Biddle, Huntingdon newspaper publisher and co-chairman of the seal sale sponsoring committee of Pennsylvania. Governor Leader pointed out that "for fifty years Christmas seals have brought hope and help to those suffering from tuberculosis." He said he was proud that citizens of this state were among the first to realize the important work these simple pieces of paper could do.

Burgess Endorses Seal Sale!

Burgess W. E. Rice, right, hands annual Christmas Seal Sale proclamation, to James Mazzu, of James Jewelers, president of the Warren County Tuberculosis Society.

The high cost of tuberculosis was emphasized by Burgess Rice in his official proclamation approving the 50th annual Christmas Seal which opens here on Thursday.

"Since the first Christmas Seal was sold in 1907, more than seven million lives have been saved from this tragic disease," he said, "but it still costs this nation over $600,000,000 a year."

Tuberculosis costs this nation and this community much more than money he pointed out. "The cost in worry and heartaches, in families separated, in lives crippled by this debilitating disease cannot be measured."

"Christmas Seals dollars spent now are an investment in human lives. They will also mean tax dollars saved in the future," the Burgess said.

Burgess Rice's official proclamation reads: Whereas, the cost of tuberculosis is a heavy burden on the people of this community, state, and nation, and

Whereas, no individual, regardless of race, creed, or economic status, is safe from this communicable disease unless all are safe, and

Whereas, the work of the Warren Tuberculosis Association, aimed at preventing the spread of tuberculosis, will help bring an end to the economic loss and personal tragedy caused by the disease, and

Whereas, the support of the tuberculosis association is derived solely from the sale of Christmas Seals,

Therefore I, Burgess of Warren, urge all residents of this town to contribute generously to the 1956 Christmas Seal sale.

Given under my hand and seal of the Borough of Warren, Pennsylvania, this 14th day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-six.

WILLIAM E. RICE, Burgess of Warren.

Erie Solicitor Is Predicting P. U. C. Will Order Rate Cut

Erie — City Solicitor Gerald Weber, back from the latest round of hearings on the proposed Pennsylvania Gas Company rate increase, said recently he was hopeful the Public Utility Commission will eventually order a substantial reduction in the increase being sought.

If a reduction is ordered, the city and county fight against higher gas prices will have paid substantial dividends to Erie and area residents.

The combined fight of the two governmental agencies won an initial six months delay in the effective date of increase, and now seems certain to win a second delay, perhaps to March 2.

An announcement from the PUC on a further delay in the increase, now scheduled to go into effect on December 2, is expected momentarily.

The rate increase being sought by the company would amount to over a $1,000,000 a year. "We certainly hope it will be reduced substantially," Weber said.

The city solicitor said the latest round of hearings in Harrisburg attended by him and County Solicitor Jacob Heid, established the fact the gas company "ignores the principal of price" when making purchases of gas during the cut-back period in the summer.

"They buy from high priced supplies as well as low priced supplies during the summer," Weber declared.

EATS LAXATIVE TABLETS

A three-year-old girl, who ate a box of 20 laxative tablets, is reported in good condition at Hamot Hospital in Erie. Patricia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Marz of Erie, was taken to the Hamot Hospital yesterday when the mother discovered she had eaten the tablets. Mrs. Marz said Patricia and a brother, Robert, 6, found seven boxes of the tablets as they played outside near the Marz home Sunday noon. She took six boxes from Robert, who admitted he had eaten a few, and then learned from the boy that the girl swallowed a box full.

GOVERNOR OPENS CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE

The governor of Pennsylvania, George M. Leader and his wife, shown here in the executive mansion at Harrisburg, as they opened the 50th annual Christmas Seal sale, by purchasing the first seals from two Hanover school children. In the group are left to right, Jeffrey Miller, nine, Mrs. Leader, the governor, Elizabeth Graybill, eight, and standing, John H. Biddle, Huntington newspaper publisher and chairman of the seal sale sponsoring committee of Pennsylvania. Governor Leader pointed out that "for fifty years Christmas seals have brought hope and help to those suffering from tuberculosis." He said he was proud that citizens of this state were among the first to realize the important work these simple pieces of paper could do.

Burgess Endorses Seal Sale!

Burgess W. E. Rice, right, hands annual Christmas Seal Sale proclamation, to James Mazzu, of James Jewelers, president of the Warren County Tuberculosis Society.

The high cost of tuberculosis was emphasized by Burgess Rice in his official proclamation approving the 50th annual Christmas Seal which opens here on Thursday.

"Since the first Christmas Seal was sold in 1907, more than seven million lives have been saved from this tragic disease," he said, "but it still costs this nation over $600,000,000 a year."

Tuberculosis costs this nation and this community much more than money he pointed out. "The cost in worry and heartaches, in families separated, in lives crippled by this debilitating disease cannot be measured."

"Christmas Seals dollars spent now are an investment in human lives. They will also mean tax dollars saved in the future," the Burgess said.

Burgess Rice's official proclamation reads:

Whereas, the cost of tuberculosis is a heavy burden on the people of this community, state, and nation, and

Whereas, no individual, regardless of race, creed, or economic status, is safe from this communicable disease unless all are safe, and

Whereas, the work of the Warren Tuberculosis Association, aimed at preventing the spread of tuberculosis, will help bring an end to the economic loss and personal tragedy caused by the disease, and

Whereas, the support of the tuberculosis association is derived solely from the sale of Christmas Seals,

Therefore I, Burgess of Warren, urge all residents of this town to contribute generously to the 1956 Christmas Seal sale.

Given under my hand and seal of the Borough of Warren, Pennsylvania, this 14th day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-six.

WILLIAM E. RICE, Burgess of Warren.

Coast guardsmen recovered his body shortly after midnight.

LIGHT PLANE CRASHES

Ted Fulp, 25-year-old student pilot of Niagara Falls, escaped injury Monday when his plane was flipped over by a gust of wind when he was attempting an emergency landing near West Spring Creek. Taking his 100-mile student test, he was headed home when snow flurries closed in. He selected a field on the Grey Mitchell farm and started down. About 15 feet off the ground a gust tossed the Piper J3 upside down. Fulp was able to walk away.

Erie Solicitor Is Predicting P. U. C. Will Order Rate Cut

Erie — City Solicitor Gerald Weber, back from the latest round of hearings on the proposed Pennsylvania Gas Company rate increase, said recently he was hopeful the Public Utility Commission will eventually order a substantial reduction in the increase being sought.

If a reduction is ordered, the city and county fight against higher gas prices will have paid substantial dividends to Erie and area residents.

An announcement from the PUC on a further delay in the increase, now scheduled to go into effect on December 2, is expected momentarily.

The rate increase being sought by the company would amount to over a $1,000,000 a year. "We certainly hope it will be reduced substantially," Weber said.

The city solicitor said the latest round of hearings in Harrisburg attended by him and County Solicitor Jacob Held, established the fact the gas company "ignores the principal of price" when making purchases of gas during the cut-back period in the summer.

"They buy from high priced supplies as well as low priced supplies during the summer," Weber declared.

N. E. A. CENTENNIAL

Prominent Americans from all walks of life will join members of the National Education Association in celebrating the Centennial anniversary of that organization, when the nation's teachers appraise "a century of progress in education" in a year-long observance starting January 1, 1957.

NEA President Martha A. Shull, in making public names of the Centennial Commission, stated: "This top-level working alliance symbolizes the partnership between teacher and citizen in responsibility for the welfare of our schools."

The Commission set three main objectives for the observance: 1. To consider action to provide adequate education for increasing millions of children. 2. To strengthen the teaching profession in its service to people of all ages. General Centennial theme will be "An Educated People Moves Freedom Forward."

Commission members point out this project is "not intended to take the place of already organized citizen activity for better schools. It is designed to supplement projects already under way and is presented that the great mass of American citizens, through their own existing community organizations, may gain a more thorough understanding of the schools in their own communities."

ORCHIDS TO MR. BANGHART

New and richly-deserved honors have come to Warren's outstanding worker in the Boy Scout organization in the announcement that Harold L. Banghart, for many years identified actively with Scouting in the county, state and nation, was among the men to receive the Silver Antelope award at a meeting held in Harrisburg recently. This, second highest award given by the Boy Scouts of America, is presented for outstanding service to boys throughout the region, which includes Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware, Virginia, West Virginia and the District of Columbia. Our congratulations to Mr. Banghart for this added honor which he brings, not only to Chief Cornplanter Council, but to the county and region.

National Education Week

Good PTA's Make For Strong America

At no time in the past fifty years has the P.T.A. been more influential or more important. There are, in this country, more than 40,000 parent-teacher associations with more than 10,000,000 P.T.A. members. Each has the same purposes, the same concerns, the same basic structure as all the rest—and the same ideal: to make sure that all children and young people have the best chance in the world to grow into adult citizens who are healthy, well-educated, mentally sound, and spiritually strong.

On a radio program, a child reared being punished for a misdeed. "All right," he tells his mother, "you just ask them at a P.T.A. if it's okay to take away my allowance."

Funny? Yes. A bit corny? Yes. Trivial? No. For all these off-hand comments, humorous or not, have one significant thing in common: They take it for granted that the P.T.A. is part of the American way of life, like the corner drugstore, the baby sitter, and apple pie a la mode.

This means a great deal more than just that "the P.T.A. is here to stay." It means the people of this country know and accept and appreciate the P.T.A. It means most of all that today as never before, people are concerned with what concerns the P.T.A.—the welfare and the future of their children.

The long term objectives of the parent-teacher organization, therefore, must be objectives of the whole nation and the world. The objectives are:

"To promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, church, and community.
To raise the standards of home life.
To secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children and youth.

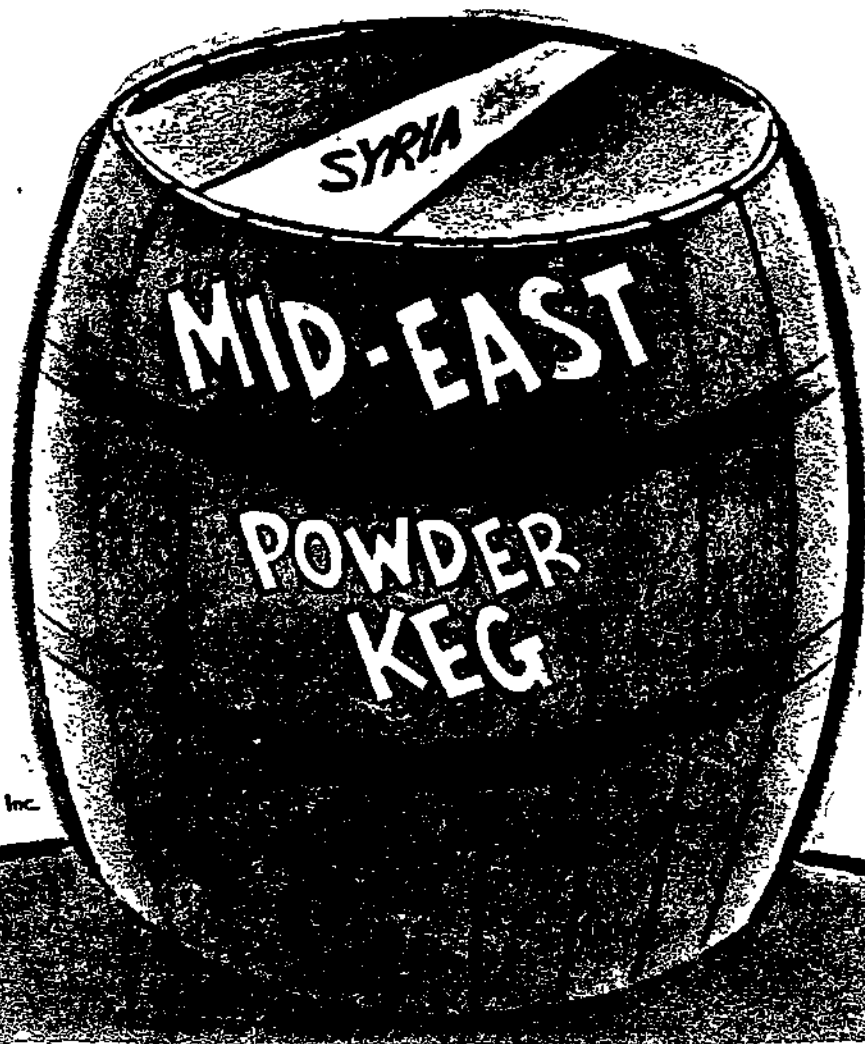

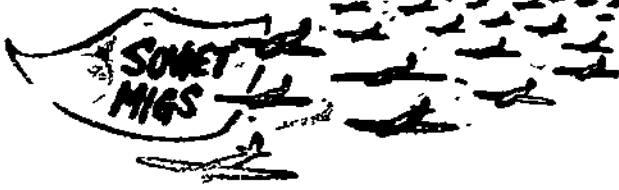

To bring into closer relation, the home and the school, that parents and teachers may cooperate intelligently in the training of the child.
To develop between educators and the general public such united efforts as will secure for every child the highest advantages in physical, mental, social, and spiritual education."

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

It is he that buildeth his stories in the heaven, and hath founded his troop in the earth; he that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: The Lord is his name.—Amos 9:8.

Nothing is more ancient than God, for He was never created; nothing more beautiful than the world, it is the work of that same God; nothing more active than thought, for it flies over the whole universe; nothing stronger than necessity, for all must submit to it.—Thales.

Here and There

In what little spare time we have been able to devote to it the past few days we have been browsing through some interesting papers printed in Warren back in September, 1899. They consist of seven copies of "The Carnival" published every morning during Carnival Week. The editor-in-chief was Mrs. W. W. Wilbur, assistants, Mrs. S. E. Walker, Miss Nellie White; treasurer, Mrs. W. M. Lindsey. Volume 1, number 1 appeared September 23, 1899, which incidentally, was on a Saturday, then it appeared six days beginning with the following Monday. There is so much of interest in the papers that it will take a few days to review them. Through the papers appears a continued story on "Warren Of Today" that must be typed and preserved for future generations. There is a "Biography of Joseph Warren" on the first page of the initial copy, also the first installment of "History of the church." It appears that the paper was printed in connection with "The annual Carnival" sponsored by the First Presbyterian congregation. The first column of the second issue is occupied with a story about "Our New Church." The opening paragraph of this article is a classic in itself. It says: "Now it came to pass in the year of our Lord, about 1895, as some of the elders of the Presbyterian church of Warren, set by their fires musing, the Spirit of the Lord came upon them and they said to one another: 'Lo, we dwell in houses made of brick and of stone with Corinthian columns and man-made roofs, while the church we worship in is a leaking, crumbling, tumble-down house, fit only for the bats to live in. And they said let us build a more suitable house for the Lord.'"

There is a Reader item on the first page which says, "Have a 'Bell' telephone placed in your residence and be able to talk with over 300 subscribers in Warren, as well as with any 'Bell' subscriber in the United States, as far west as the Rockies."

Local items in column one of the third issue selected at random follow: "Hoky - Poky at the American booth... umbrellas and pack-ages are checked at the Swedish booth... John Best, machine shop, Fourth street, where pumps are manufactured... Warren Mills, Myron Waters, Andrew Hertz, George Ensworth, proprietors, where flour and seed are manufactured... At the doll booth where there are Dewey dolls and dolls of every description, and a large doll to be given to the child receiving the most votes... The Truth Soap Company is also on Fourth avenue, where several kinds of soap are made... On the Island we find Newmaker & Reed, wholesale manufacturers and dealers in lumber, parquet, wood carpet, etc... Piso Cure for Consumption is manufactured here, and is extensively sold in foreign countries... The carnival ladies wish to extend thanks to Mr. E. Walker of the I. X. L. Ice cream factory for a large quantity of ice cream donated... The gentleman who exchanged a silver tipped handle umbrella for an umbrella with a wood carved handle, which stood at the south end of the armory, near the stairs, is requested to leave it at the Penna. Gas office and receive in return his own umbrella... Merry Christmas in September, instead of December, bring all the children and plenty of nickels, the tree will be found on the first floor of the Armory, filled with all sorts of valuable gifts, some worth 25 cents and 35 cents, with Mrs. Hall, Mrs. McPherson and Mrs. Eddy in attendance... Morok and Kirberger have elegant new wedding gifts in cut glass and silver... Mr. Frank Barnhart has kindly consented to place one of his Columbia graphophones in the Armory building for the use of the Carnival ladies and a concert will be given for a small admittance Wednesday evening at eight o'clock, along with songs, speeches, Gilmore's band, rehearsals, etc... Each issue of The Carnival carries scores of small advertisements sold in spaces of two inches each. They will be given special mention in a later column.

The papers are the property of Mrs. Ruth Youngquist, R. D. 1 Clarendon, who has made them available to us.

UN Charter Called for Police Force Since Start

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—In trying to organize an international military task force to supervise the end of fighting in Egypt, the United Nations is just getting around to a job that its charter called for in 1945.

The history of the last 10 years indicates that the U.N. international "police force" might not have been used, even if it had been created. For the 1945 charter called for this force to be controlled by the 11-nation Security Council.

Russia would have vetoed the use of such a force to repel the Communist aggression in Korea in 1950. France and the United Kingdom would veto the use of such a force in Egypt now. And Russia would unquestionably veto any proposal to use force to get her troops out of Hungary.

A STILL MORE important factor is that the present crises in Egypt and Hungary are not being considered by the Security Council. They are being handled in the 76-nation General Assembly. The Communist aggression against Korea was likewise handled there.

France and the U.K. are openly defying the General Assembly cease-fire resolution on Egypt, so their troops cannot be used for police action. The United States does not want to send troops to Egypt. That would give the Russians the opportunity they have been seeking to move in.

The General Assembly has therefore had to instruct U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld to try to get commitments for troops from the smaller nations for restoring peace to Egypt.

Article 43 of the U.N. charter pledges all member nations to make armed forces available to the Security Council on its call. These troops were to be under direction of a U.N. Military Staff Committee. It is made up of deputy chiefs of staff from the five permanent Security Council members.

This Military Staff Committee still exists. The current American members are Lt. Gen. Thomas W. Herring for the Army, Vice Admiral F. W. MacMahon for the Navy, Lt. Gen. Charles B. Stone III for the Air Force.

THEY MEET WITH their opposite numbers from France, U.K., U.S.S.R., and Nationalist China every two weeks. Their meetings last only a few minutes, however, for they have been stymied ever since 1948, when they reported they could not agree.

Early in 1946 the Security Council had asked its Military Staff Committee to examine how Article 43 of the U.N. charter should be put into effect. Over a year later it reported 25 recommendations for the creation, maintenance and supply of U.N. military forces. Then the Military Staff Committee was asked to make recommendations on the size of U.N. armed forces.

Four powers submitted four estimates, as follows:

	FRANCE	U.K.	U.S.	U.S.S.R.
Bombers	775	600	1,250	500
Fighters	300	400	2,250	300
Army divisions	16	8-12	20	12
Battleships	3	2	3	None
Carriers	6	4	3	None
Cruisers	9	16	15	6
Destroyers	24	24	84	24
Submarines	12	12	90	12

What these figures show at a glance is that the United States, favored making the U.N. forces strong enough to deal with any situation. The other powers wanted to keep U.N. forces small.

Needlework Guild Invites Public to In-gathering Tea

Warren Branch, Needlework Guild of America, extends a cordial invitation to all friends interested to view its annual Garment In-gathering. Thursday at the Woman's Club and to enjoy an informal cup of tea from three until five o'clock.

Garments are to be delivered to the club no later than 1:00 p. m., in order that they may be displayed in the auditorium. Directors will hold their annual business meeting at 2:00 o'clock.

Girl Scouts of Warren-Forest Council assumed Needlework Guild membership as their special service project for this year and many of the girls have earned their sewing badges through making of garments they will display Thursday afternoon.

One group in particular, Scouts from Sugar Grove, will make their formal presentation of gifts about 3:00 p. m. Thursday.

Armagost and Wren Rites Are of Interest Locally

Mr. and Mrs. Irada Phillips, 227 NE 173rd street, North Miami Beach, Fla., have announced the marriage of their daughter, Mildred Wren, to George Richard Armagost, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Kenneth Armagost, 830 NE 122nd street, North Miami.

Mr. Armagost is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Christensen, 6 South South street, Warren, and is serving a four-year enlistment with the U. S. Coast Guard. Stationed at Dinner Key Base for several months, he has been transferred to the Fifth District and will serve as a flight engineer with the Coast Guard Air Detachment in Bermuda.

His wife joined him there November 7 to spend the remaining two years of his enlistment, after which he plans to re-enlist and make a career of the Coast Guard Air Service.

Music, Phones, Enthusiasm
---They Brand Girl Typical

SHE'S a fairly typical teen-ager if—

She can call up a friend with whom she has just parted company and talk for an hour on the telephone, provided, of course, she can lie down while she talks.

She either loves or hates. She rarely shifts into neutral about anything or anybody.

She is convinced that her parents are stricter than anyone else's, even though each of her friends claims the same disgusting distinction.

She doesn't believe in keeping a boy waiting when she has a date. Her mother may have thought it was good technique to keep a young man cooling his heels until she made a grand entrance. But today's daughters are ready in time to open the door to their dates.

Having a date with a "new" boy is fun but it's hard for an adult to tell which is more important about the date, HAVING it or talking about it afterward to all of her friends.

EVERYTHING IS SO IMPORTANT

SHE has her record player going most of the time. She studies by it, turns it on for "background" when she has a chattering group of friends in her room, even goes to sleep with it turned low. She finds out what at least 15 girls are going to wear to a party before she dares make the big decision of what to wear herself. She has more irons in the fire than the rest of the family put together—or maybe it just seems so because everything is so very IMPORTANT.

She is probably more like you were at her age than you admit. And since you lived through this age once, it's a cinch you'll be able to live through it again. And most mothers find it is just as bewildering to live through a daughter's adolescence as it was through their own.

CLASS OF 1932 IS PLANNING REUNION

An interested group of the Warren High School graduating class of 1932 held a preliminary meeting to discuss plans for a 25-year reunion. Due to the great interest shown by those in attendance, it was decided to proceed with plans for a gathering in 1957.

Class members who have time and are willing to help in preparations are asked to call Lorraine Rohlin, 1730-M, or Ray Caldwell, 1048-W.

BAPTIST CIRCLE

Rehobeth Circle of First Baptist church held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. R. H. Tibbott, 11 Oak street, with a good attendance and Mrs. Lunea Lucas in charge of the business session. For White Cross work, bandages were folded and packed. Following the meeting, refreshments were served by the hostess from a table decorated with greens and white candles.

LUNCHEON-MEETING AT WOMAN'S CLUB

Special attention of members of the Woman's Club is called to the Art Department program to follow next Monday's luncheon-meeting. Chairman Kay Frantz has announced the title, "Hobbies", but has left an aura of mystery surrounding the program, promising only "different and unique entertainment". Although she will not commit herself on who is participating, she states music will play a part in the program.

Members are reminded to make their reservations for the luncheon no later than 1:00 p. m. Friday.

What Is a C.C.A.?

Unlike a regular 30-day charge account which must be paid in full each month, a CCA is a CONTINUOUS CHARGE ACCOUNT on which you pay a fixed amount each month. If, for instance, the amount planned is $60 total, you pay one-sixth, or, $10 each month. You always know how much you pay each month because you agree to a set budget payment. Come in and ask our Credit Department about it.

The Mature Parent

Parents Don't Shape the Destinies of Their Children

BY MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

IT was late afternoon, and John, four, became suddenly quite discouraged by his life. For one thing, the motor inside his Auto Jet-Racer had just whirled with the familiar, ominous sound of breakdown, its key spinning around on nothingness. For another thing, baby Jeanne had snuffles. And Mommy had been so busy all day pouring orange juice down her that she'd only said things like, "Can't you be quiet for a minute? You've waked her up again. How do I know where your red crayon is?"

Now, adults in John's state of mind often turn to drinking, smoking, sex conquest, ocean voyages and other activities by which they hope to overcome loneliness. To John, however, none of those was available. So he turned to the one that was. Up against the human problem of aloneness, he put his thumb in his mouth and began to suck it.

UNFORTUNATELY, his mother has a neighbor who recently took some psychology courses. Noting John's innocent solution to the old human problem, she said to his mother, "He must have more love. Thumb sucking means that you have rejected him. In older children, it is often a symptom of nervous breakdown."

As a result of this sensational information, John's mother finds it impossible to bear with his thumb sucking. When she found him doing it, she snatched his thumb from his mouth impatiently, saying, "Goodness, must you do that the minute I can't amuse you?"

HER impatience is quite understandable in view of her fear that she may have doomed John to a nervous breakdown. How can she possibly "love" the child whose action she sees as a direct accusation of her?

She can't. And one of the reasons we find it so hard to love children freely and spontaneously today is psychology's insistence that we make their fates. We dare make no mistake with them lest it mean eternal damnation for them. The panic this inflexible doctrine has created among parents has done considerable damage.

While it is true that we influence children's lives, we do not create their destinies. Only very young and inexperienced psychology claims such egotistical powers for us.

New Rosebud Project at Youngsville Methodist

Youngsville—The Ladies' Sunday School Class of the Methodist church is sponsoring the project of having a rosebud in the chancel to welcome each new baby into the parish. On Sunday, a rosebud welcomed a son, Richard Alan, born November 4 to Dr. and Mrs. Richard A. Peters. The rose was later taken to the parents' home, symbolizing the church's interest in Christian nurture and upbringing of the child.

WBCS members held their regular meeting in the church parlors, with the president, Mrs. Hugh Schuler, in charge. Devotions were conducted by the Rev. J. N. Holder; Margo Borton and Norma Jean Donaldson gave a very interesting report on their week at Wesley Woods Camp last summer; a play, "To Serve Humanity", was given by Margo Borton, Jeannie Masz, Karen Jewell, Judy Kirk, Sherry Walters, Carlene Henton and Connie Knapp.

Any member of the Methodist church wishing to contribute to the bake sale to be held Saturday at Abraham's Store may take the items there or call 9-2861 for pick-up. Proceeds of the sale will go to the Wesley Woods Camp Fund, on the committee are Chairman Jesse Lyon, Carl Henton, Jr., Ed Turchan, Marsus Mortland and Mrs. Harry Carlson.

MEETING OF MARINES

All Marine Corps League members and other interested Marines are asked to be on hand for the regular meeting of the local detachment at 7:30 p. m. Thursday in the VFW post rooms. There will be further discussion of plans for the annual Marine Christmas Ball, a financial report by the treasurer, and membership discussion.

SCOUT BENEFIT

Mothers of Boy Scout Troop 9 of First Methodist church will hold a bake sale from 10:30 a. m. to 5:00 p. m. Saturday in the Metzger-Wright store and promise all manner of good things to please the shopper.

PLEASANT GRANGE

At the regular meeting of Pleasant Grange this evening, newly-elected officers for the coming year will be installed by the Diamond Grange degree team from Tiona. All members are urged to be in attendance and to bring food for the lunch.

COCHRANTON PLANS FOR CHORUS FESTIVAL

Announcement is received from Cochran that plans are under way for housing and entertaining 200 students at the Northwest District Chorus Festival to be held in that community January 10, 11 and 12. Young-singers will represent schools in Meadville, Franklin, Erie, Oil City, Warren, Titusville, Cochran and other surrounding areas.

Preliminary plans were discussed for the event at a meeting held at the home of James Reid, head of the music department of Cochran Area Joint High School, parents and friends of the music students forming committees to carry out the details.

MOTHERS' CLUB

A large group was in attendance at Pre-School Mothers' Club meeting Monday evening at the home of Sophia Prodromou, 12 Redwood street, when a report was made by the club's representative to the Citizens' Committee and discussion of the proposed high school and site followed.

Claire Elliott, of the Children's Aid Society, gave a very interesting and informative talk on the history and work of the society. Refreshments were served by Mary Bleik, chairman, assisted by Marcia Peek and Terry Gannoe.

MAY R. STONE GROUP

A delicious tureen dinner was enjoyed by 18 members of May R. Stone Group of First Presbyterian church Monday evening, when the table was decorated with a beautiful centerpiece of yellow chrysanthemums, brown pom poms and candles. Arrangements for the dinner were in charge of Mrs. Wayne C. Helmbrecht, Mrs. L. E. Seavy and Mrs. N. K. Wendelboe. Mrs. Paul Arnold read an article appropriate to the Thanksgiving season.

Mrs. W. H. Cannon, president, conducted the business session; routine reports were read by the secretary, Margaret Whitcomb and the treasurer, Esther Stohl. The group voted to purchase six chairs for the church; the president appointed Miss Whitcomb and Mrs. McNulty to make recommendations at the next meeting for the use of the Marjory Hamm Memorial Fund.

Following adjournment, members had a white elephant sale, with Mrs. Randall W. Clark as auctioneer.

YOUNG MOTHER'S CLUB

Those members attending the Young Mother's Study Club Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Donald Mervine were treated to a most interesting and inspiring talk on Religious Training by the Rev. C. W. Baldwin of Grace Methodist church.

He pointed out that home environment and background have a great bearing on a child's religious training. Children follow examples set for them by parents and, from early childhood, simple habits such as grace said at mealtime or a short family worship will set an excellent pattern for children.

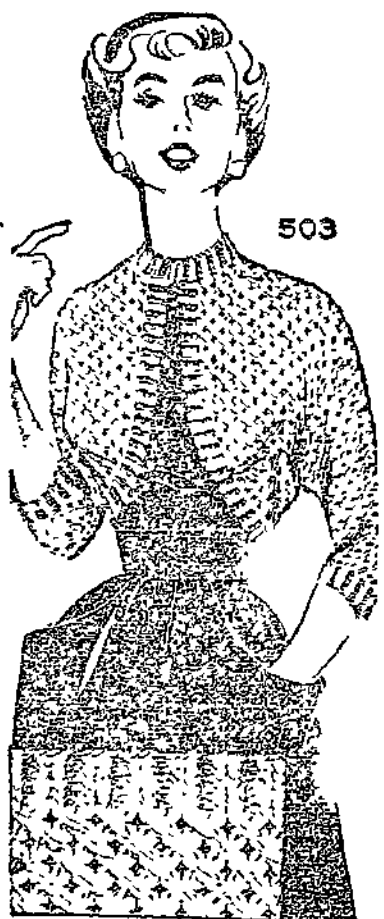

Religious training cannot be left to the church alone, he said; it takes time and patience in the home. Mr. Baldwin accented the fact the greatest influence parents can have on their children's religious training is family participation in church and Sunday school activities.

Refreshments were served from an attractive fall table, with Mrs. Charles Blackman and Mrs. Wills Lundahl pouring. Serving on the committee were Mrs. Ross Bryan and Mrs. Harry Wildblood.

FRANCIS CIRCLE

Francis Circle members of Epworth Methodist church held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Ned Small, Timothy avenue, North Warren. Devotions were led by Mrs. John Anderson, Mrs. William Brooks, chairman, conducted the business session. During the study, "The Churches of Asia," talks on different countries were given; sewing was completed for the Christmas missionary boxes, and refreshments were served by the hostess.

Children's Aid Society Needs Volunteer Drivers

At the November meeting of Children's Aid Society board of directors, held Tuesday with Mrs. Donald E. Conaway, Sr., presiding, Mrs. D. W. Morse, chairman of the medical committee, reported a need for additional volunteer drivers to transport children to the monthly clinic held the first Friday of each month. She pointed out that it is helpful to have a substantial list in order that no one need be called upon to drive more than three or four times a year. The "Happiness Fund" was discussed, and it was decided to get this annual opportunity for Christmas giving under way immediately after Thanksgiving.

Ten new members were added to the enrollment of the Society and again the board wishes to thank the residents of Warren county for their continuing interest and support.

Banquet and Meeting of Warren District Nurses

Warren County District Nurses' Association has planned a combined meeting and banquet at the Glade township fire hall at 6:00 p. m. Monday, November 19.

A Christmas gift, in the form of individual contributions, will be sent to the International Council of Nurses, where a memorial, a room in the International House in London, England, will be dedicated to Miss Lavinia Lloyd Dock.

Miss Dock, a nurse, who gave so much to nursing has herself made nursing history. A native of Pennsylvania, Miss Dock was given much credit in keeping the ICN alive during its infancy and building it up to its present day status. She journeyed to England without salary, to serve as its secretary and establish a sound foundation for the ICN.

The International Council of Nurses is a Federation of the National Nurses Associations, and is a non-political, self-governing organization. The ICN admits into membership National Nurses Associations which uphold these principles, and helps them in maintaining the highest standards of Nursing service, nursing education and professional ethics in their own country.

MYRTLE BECK CIRCLE

Myrtle Beck Circle of Grace Methodist church held its November meeting at the home of Mrs. Florence Anderson, Glenwood street, with 17 members and four visitors present. Chairman Helen Brydon presided and Mrs. C. V. Canby led devotions. Plans were made for the Christmas party to be held with other circles December 10 in Fellowship Hall.

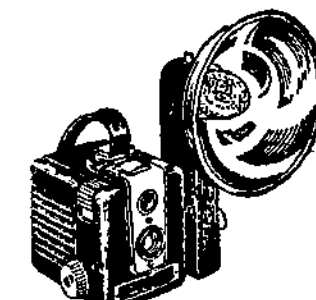

The lesson by Mrs. James Marshall from "Patterns of Things to Come" was a character study of Christ's disciples. The group spent a profitable evening under the direction of Mrs. Paul Reynolds, making plans for the Cancer Center. Concluding, a social hour included refreshments served by the hostesses.

EDNA SEXTON CIRCLE

Edna Sexton Circle of Grace Methodist church held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Russell Templeton, with 12 members and one guest present. Mrs. F. H. Nelson led the devotions; Mrs. Oliver Kyler presided at the business session and also reviewed a chapter from the study book, "East from Burma."

Plans were made to hold the December meeting in Fellowship Hall in cooperation with other circles. Concluding, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by the co-hostess, Mrs. George Schanz.

SOCIETY

Program on Shakespeare Pleases Club Members

Members of the Woman's Club were most pleasantly entertained Monday afternoon, when the Drama Department presented William Shakespeare, of Jamestown Community College.

Mr. Cherniak's topic, "Shakespeare on the Spot", was informative and enlightening, in an informal and humorous way. Three points the speaker stressed were:

1. The paradoxical status of Shakespeare today and the reasons for it. Why some people love him and some hate him. 2. Some ways of approaching Shakespeare's works in order to get more pleasure and understanding from them. 3. The values of Shakespeare for a modern audience, how to realize the potential there and the outlook for the future.

Mr. Cherniak is a recognized authority on Shakespeare, receiving a degree from the University of Western Ontario at London, Ontario, and his master's degree from University of Michigan, where he taught for four years before coming to Jamestown. He expects to complete work on his doctorate in the near future.

Mrs. James Frantz announced next Monday's meeting will be luncheon, followed by a program on "Hobbies" by the Art Department.

Mrs. Wayne Helmbrecht was hostess for the social hour, with Mrs. K. M. Andrews and Mrs. F. C. Wooster presiding at the attractive tea table.

EVENING CIRCLE

Russell—Members of the Thursday Evening Circle will meet tomorrow night at the home of Mrs. Lee Taegle, an advance of one week because of the Thanksgiving holiday.

Legion Auxiliary Plans Full Activity Schedule

Mrs. Mabel Bisson, Auxiliary president, was in charge of the very busy Tuesday evening session of Chief Complanter Unit 135.

The membership voted financial support to the Legion Home Corporation for modernizing the kitchen; contributions were voted to the Legion Christmas Package Fund and for holiday remembrances to veterans in Deshon, Aspinwall, Erie Veterans' Hospital, and the Soldiers' and Sailors' Home in that city.

Plans were also completed to pay all obligations to the Department for National Security, Child Welfare, Junior Baseball, Scotland School, and Scholarship Funds, also to the regular and special Rehabilitation Funds.

Mrs. Lillian Kippie will serve this area as child welfare chairman; Mrs. Dolly Ayers is serving and assisting as sub-chairman.

Mrs. Mary Ann Buerkle, chairman of junior activities, announced plans for a Christmas party early in December; Miss Florence Hill, membership chairman, presented names of several candidates. The Auxiliary extends a cordial invitation to all wives, mothers, daughters or sister of Legionnaires to join the unit, those interested contacting Miss Hill, 2678-J or Mrs. J. G. Kiernan, 4090, for further information.

To carry on the program of service activities for veterans and their families, patriotic and civic activities, full membership strength is needed.

TULEY AND PUDDER MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Orris E. Pudder, Sr., of Pittsfield, wish to announce the marriage of their daughter, Thelma May, to James A. Tuley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Evan A. Tuley, of Youngsville, on November 3.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Gene Sackett, of the Findlay Lake EUB church. Attending the couple, both students at Slippery Rock State Teachers' College, were his sister, Nancy Lou Tuley and Richard Sherwood. A reception for the immediate families followed at the Tuley cottage at Findlay Lake, where Mrs. Otto Sidon, aunt of the groom, served the wedding cake and Shirley Wagoner, cousin of the bride, poured.

BEREAN CLASS

Berean Class of First Baptist church will meet at 8:00 p. m. Friday at the home of Linea Lucas and Viola Lindmark, 117 Central avenue. Virginia Searle will show pictures taken on a recent trip to Europe, and a large attendance is desired.

ALTAR SOCIETY

Members of St. Joseph's Altar Society will hold their regular session at 7:30 p. m. Thursday, with rosary and benediction, followed by a business meeting and social time. Mary Rock Sealise and her committee will be in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. William Barr, 435 Lookout street, wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Janet Marie, to Pvt. James Loddell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benny Loddell, Clarendon. No date has been set for the wedding.

CLUB ENJOYS MEETING AT UTILITY CENTER

About 20 members of Blue Stocking Club enjoyed a gathering Tuesday afternoon at the Pennsylvania Gas Company's service center, when Mrs. Alice Peterson, home economist for the firm in Jamestown and Warren, demonstrated preparation of several delicious foods and awarded the completed dishes to members.

The group went away very pleased with the afternoon's events in the company's attractive rooms. Mrs. Robert Winger and Mrs. Earl Christensen were hostesses for the occasion.

Next meeting will be November 27 at the home of Mrs. Freeman O. Peterson, with Mrs. H. H. Barr as co-hostess.

STAFF ENTERTAINED

Russell—The installing staff of Kossuth Encampment No. 98, IOOF of Warren, was entertained for a pleasant gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Enos. Mr. Enos has served as district deputy grand patriarch of the encampment for the past year.

A delicious dinner was served to the following: Perry McDannel, Wayne Russ, Blair Craft and Harold Fulmer, Warren; Luther Whitaker, Clarendon; Elburn Briggs and Gerald Mattison, Russell.

Mrs. Enos was assisted by Mrs. Fulmer and Mrs. Briggs and a pleasant evening of pinocle followed.

PAULINE PULLI PLANS OPEN CHURCH

Miss Pauline Pulli, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Pulli, Clarendon, will observe open church Saturday, November 17, for her marriage to Albert Lee Nobles, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Nobles, Pittsfield. The ceremony will take place at 10:00 a. m. in St. Clara's church at Clarendon.

Mirrored in Our Times

Either it was our spell of unusually fine weather—or we've not been watching the passage of time with any particular interest—but the realization that Thanksgiving Day was but a week away came as a terrific shock! And after that Christmas. Seems like just yesterday that we were watching the Fourth of July parade go by.

Traditional Thanksgiving menus mean golden turkey with your favorite stuffings or dressing; crimson cranberries; squash—all of the delicious trimmings. But it's always fun to add an extra touch to the festivities—be you hostess or guest—really good candy—fresh and tasty is very much in order. So often we buy candy for others and forget to keep it on hand for our own family to enjoy.

Always top quality; always fresh; always delicious; always tastefully packaged—make every day a holiday—keep Whitman's candy on hand. Many wonderful assortments from which to choose. At the Warren Drug Store—always ready to serve you.

Supposedly this is National Long Underwear Week—so stated Arthur Godfrey—so if you want to keep step with what's going on in the world we've given the signal. If you haven't put the storm windows on—better do it!

Well another $64,000 went to a contestant on the now-famous program and the fellow with the Irish brogue certainly earned it. His knowledge of words brought him fame and fortune—sure pays to concentrate on building your vocabulary. We do wish, however, that a few of the current words could be replaced — "fabulous"; "fantastic"—etc. Just for fun, see how many you can spot in everyday conversation—and note, as you do, how often a phrase is picked up and used until it gasps for breath.

It must be difficult for a high school football team to follow an undefeated "11". With few veterans but plenty of future star material, the 1956 Dragons acquitted themselves well during the past season. Stick with these boys and those to come—and we'll come up with another big winning combination soon. And as usual, the Warren team played hard, clean football every step of the way.

The Style Shop features winning combinations for cold weather ahead. It's topcoat time and time to choose yours from a wide selection. And don't go hatless in this climate, either—you'll find what you want at the Style Shop—where the best in menswear scores every day.

Twenty Accidents Reported in Oct.

A total of $5,169 property damages were caused during October by traffic accidents which claimed one life in the borough, according to the monthly police department report submitted to Council's Public Safety Committee by Mike Evan, police chief.

Twenty accidents occurred and 13 persons were injured. The lone fatality was Miss Beverly Richards, 21, of Garland who was killed October 7 at the Fifth and Conewango Avenue intersection.

Parking meters receipts amounted to $1,849. Arrests for the month totaled 403, with $621 fines imposed. Including payment of back fines a total of $637 was collected.

Investigations numbered 134 and 24 doors were found open.

Fire Department
 Fire Chief James Tidico reported a fire loss during October of $300,334. Main item was a fire at United Refinery on October 5th, with Youngsville and Clarendon units assisting while volunteers from North Warren, National Forge, Russell, Pleasant, Tidoute and Star Brick "stood by".

Public Works
 Street cleaning and leaf collections constituted the principal work of the borough during October and involved an approximately labor cost of $1,800 and equipment cost of $2,800.

Temporary extension of the sanitary sewer in Glade Run was completed to permit improvement of the Glade Run channel. A new dog kennel in the small building at the airport was completed.

Cross connection between the Beech Street storm and sanitary sewers was finally completed and three poles were erected at the south end of Hickory Street bridge for a traffic light.

Parks and Playgrounds
 Grading and seeding between the sidewalk and curb of newly paved streets has been completed. Three trees were removed during the month and large limbs removed from several trees which had been damaged by storms. Repair work has been started to repair the playground flood-washed turf on Crescent Park and Beaty playgrounds.

Beaty tennis courts have had a sealer coat applied to prepare them for ice skating.

Board of Health
 Communicable diseases for October amounted to 14 mumps cases and two of chicken pox. Sixteen houses were quarantined by the Health Officer who made 134 visits.

GARLAND

Garland—Turning out at the polls here were 179 of the 187 voters registered.

Mrs. Clarence Kellogg entertained with a family birthday dinner honoring Kenneth Dalrymple, North Warren; Junior Brown, Clarence, Sam, and William Kellogg. Twelve guests were present to enjoy a delicious meal.

Demonstration Is Staged at Commie Meeting in Gotham

New York (P)—Jeering anti-Soviet pickets, hurled ammoniated bottles, tomatoes, eggs and sticks last night at the entrance to a rally of the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship. No one was injured.

Negro singer Paul Robeson and controversial Brooklyn rector William Howard Melish were special targets of the pickets.

About 200 demonstrators, most of them Hungarians and Hungarian-Americans banded together outside the Pythian Temple, where the rally was held.

They shouted "Freedom for Hungary!" and "America will never be friends with murderers!" as hundreds of persons entered the building.

More than 250 patrolmen, mounted police and detectives kept the placard-waving demonstrators in check.

Policemen flanked Robeson when he arrived. A bottle of ammonia was flung toward him but splattered harmlessly on the pavement close by.

Robeson, who sang and made a speech at the rally, was booed as he left.

BEATY PREPARES

Beatty students are busily engaged in preparing their corridors and classrooms in a proper motif for the annual Education Week parent visitation Thursday evening. A series of 10-minute classes will be held to give parents an opportunity to meet all teachers.

BLOODMOBILE REPORT

Over 70 pints were collected during the visit of the Buffalo Unit of the Red Cross Bloodmobile at the Warren State Hospital Wednesday. The next visit of the unit will be at the Chapter House, on Market street, Wednesday, December 12th, 10:00 a. m., until 3:45 p. m.

Fire Destroys

Ford who was sleeping upstairs. Mrs. Shirley said later she never saw flames spread so fast. By the time she had found the number there was no time left to call the fire department. She yelled to the grandmother to get the nine-month-old baby, William, from his crib and hustle him outside. Then, in the excitement Cheryl Lynn, 2½, had wandered into the blazing kitchen. Mrs. Shirley grabbed her and ran into the living room to find that Betty Jane, aged 3½, had disappeared.

By this time the smoke was so thick it was difficult to see. The terrified mother ran into the downstairs bedroom but couldn't see the child. Fortunately, the frightened child answered her mother's cry and was hustled outside to safety.

When outside the family continued a clamor to rouse the boy sleeping upstairs while a neighbor, Harry Nupher, called the firemen. When the sleeping boy awakened, he could hardly see in the smoke-filled bedroom. The stairway was a streak of flame. The boy grabbed a stool and knocked out the window. Then he jumped to safety in his pajamas after first tossing a pair of pants out the window. He suffered cuts on the foot and leg as he landed and fell into the broken glass.

The family was taken to the home of another nearby neighbor, Mrs. Harry Jones.

The couple has three more children in Irwindale School. Patrick, aged 8, Herman, Jr. 9 and Rosalie, 10, who will not find out about the fire until they return home from school this afternoon. Seventh child of the family is Edgar, 17, who was working at the time.

Mrs. Shirley said that within ten minutes after the blaze was discovered the entire house was in flames, windows were popping and fire was shooting from every window.

Eight Glade Township Volunteer Firemen responded to the call but the house was practically down by the time they arrived, about 10:40 a. m. The men could only wet down the surrounding territory while the six-room, two-story, frame house was completely destroyed, along with the family's new freezer, TV set. Pleasant Volunteers responded with an extra water supply truck.

In fact the family lost all their possessions except what were on their backs. This afternoon they are expected to leave the Jones residence and move in with Mrs. Shirley's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Dufresne at RD 1, Akeley. Mr. Shirley works at Chautauqua Hardware in Jamestown.

The house was covered by insurance. The Shirleys who were in the midst of purchasing the property say they will probably rebuild there.

Nature

either with the current international crisis or the situation resulting from the President's election and the simultaneous election of a Democratic Congress.

Asked whether he is planning a vacation, Eisenhower replied he would like to take one but won't be able to until the international picture clears up some.

Indicating it might be some time before he feels free to get away from Washington, Eisenhower noted that Secretary of State Dulles still is recuperating in the hospital from an intestinal operation for cancer.

Other subjects discussed covered politics and four years of his second term, which included: Democratic Congress; Mandate; Domestic Matters; Vacation.

In discussing a whole series of foreign questions, the President said that a summit meeting with Russia now would be a mistake when there are crises going on and the United Nations has taken cognizance of them.

He emphasized, however, that he does not foreclose the possibility of a summit meeting some time. He also ruled out for the present any top level Big Three meeting—that is a meeting of the heads of government of the United States, Britain and France.

Eisenhower denounced Soviet military intervention in Hungary as a negation of all justice and right in the world.

At the same time he emphasized at several points that the United States, while keeping alive the hope of freedom in Eastern Europe, has never advocated open rebellion of an undefended population against ruthless force.

HUNTING EPISODE

A Hamburg, N. Y., hunter got two deer near Little Valley Tuesday, during the deer archery season, using his bow and arrow to get one deer while the second deer ran in front of his car while he was driving on the Cattaraugus-Dayton Road, Emery Arp, 46, of Lake Shore Road, Hamburg, told Deputy Sheriff Robert Bridges, the deer ran in front of the car on Route 18, about four miles south of Dayton at 5:20 p. m. Tuesday. Arp, said he was returning from hunting, with a spike buck in his car he had killed with his bow and arrow, when he was blinded by lights of another car. The deer, a doe, ran into the right front of his 1955 car, damaging the hood. The deer carcass was too smashed up to be edible.

New Finance Co. Is Opening Its Office In Liberty Street

Bill Dyke today announced the opening of Try-M Finance Company with offices on the second floor, 210 1/2 Liberty Street, over the Triangle Shoe Store.

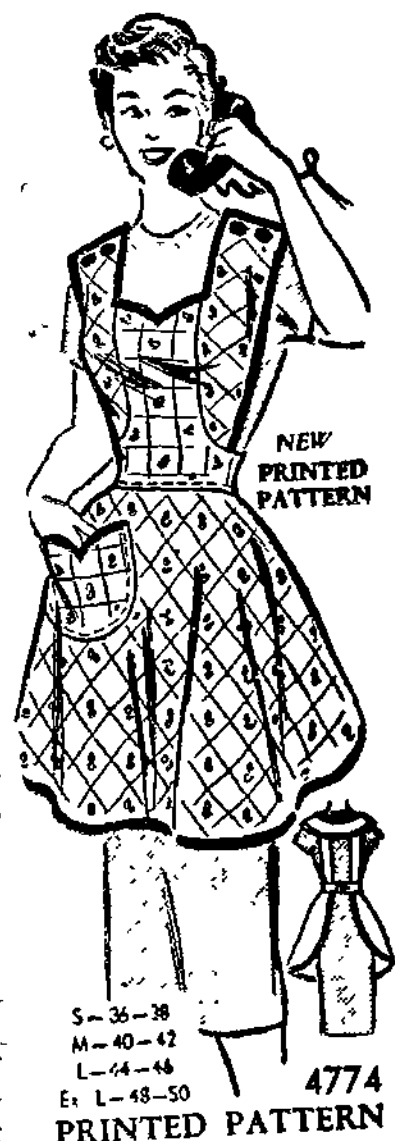

Try-M Finance is a new small loan corporation which Bill has recently organized after having spent nine years with Household Finance, which is the oldest and largest in the small loan field. Bill, who is a native of Warren, returns here from New Castle, where for the past two and one half years he has managed one of Household's largest offices. This office maintained almost five thousand borrowers and was staffed by twelve employees. An average of 25 loans per day were made. Prior to this Bill served two years as manager of the Meadville branch and before that spent four and one half years in the Erie branch.

Bill's experience in the small loan field qualifies him to offer many services in connection with the granting of loans. He is prepared to assist those with unusual financial problems and to help in setting up logical and workable family budgets, without obligation.

Try-M Finance will make loans from $20 to $600 for all purposes. Most loans will be made on a signature basis with no security ability and integrity will be the determining factors in granting the loan. The office will serve Warren and all surrounding towns. All transactions will be completed in a completely confidential manner.

Bill in returning to Warren hopes to renew old acquaintances and make many new friends. He will probably be remembered best by those who knew him through his affiliation with the Harvey & Carey Drug Store where he worked part time throughout his high school years.

CUB PACK 47 TO MEET

Cub Scout Pack 47 will hold its regular monthly meeting tomorrow evening at Home Street School. The meeting will begin promptly at 7:30 and all Cubs and parents are urged to attend.

LOCAL MAN HONORED

Perry, McDannel, of Pleasant township, has been advised that he has been named representative to the I. O. O. F. Grand Encampment from the I. O. O. F. Orphans' Home at Meadville. The board meets the second Friday of each month at the Home.

PLEADED GUILTY

Richard Hollis, 31, of Leeper, pleaded guilty in court yesterday afternoon to a charge of driving a car during a period of license suspension. Judge Alexander C. Flick, Jr. fined the man $100 and costs (usually running $35 to $45) and sentenced him to four days in the county confining. When released Hollis will be turned over to New York State authorities for an accounting of a charge that the car he was driving without a license had been stolen from Jamestown. Game Protector David Titus apprehended the man last Friday morning while making a spot check for game law violators past Sheffield. In other court activity yesterday afternoon Judge Flick placed on probation a juvenile who was charged with disorderly conduct following a hassle in a Conewango Township diner.

Top lure for hikers is the 2,050 mile Appalachian Trail which extends from Mount Katahdin in Maine to Mount Oglethorpe in Georgia.

Gathered From The Party Line

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Gibson, 616 Conewango avenue, left Monday to spend several weeks with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Gibson, in San Francisco, Calif.

Warren Ambulance Service Expands Into Kane Area

The efficient new Warren Ambulance Service is expanding its scope of activity.

Pending arrival of license plates, the Warren firm will assume control of the emergency and patient services in Kane, probably at the end of this week.

As in Warren the hilltop funeral directors have expressed a desire to get out of the ambulance business which is profitless when duplicated. Keith Nulph, manager of Warren Ambulance Service, has made arrangements to purchase the two emergency vehicles (both Cadillacs) from the Wilson G. Cummings and John F. Hill funeral homes in Kane.

William T. Carter, local service manager, will be at Kane once the service gets underway. It is expected a four to six man staff will run the hilltop operation when Mr. Carter returns to Warren.

In this community the calls answered by Warren Ambulance Service have averaged about one per day since the outfit took over at midnight, September 1st. Numerous individuals, families and industrial firms have taken advantage of the service's yearly subscription plan. Two men are always on call at Warren ambulance Market Street headquarters, phone 795.

Veterans' Day Dinner Enjoyed at Sheffield

Sheffield—The Veterans' Day dinner was held Monday evening at the Post Home with 65 members and guests present. Rev. Dewey Yale gave the prayer at the table, followed by the commander, George Rice, and Auxiliary president, Mrs. E. R. Ayers, welcoming the guests.

Miss Emma Christian, president of Inter-County Council, extended greetings; vocal solos, "God Bless America", Linda Yusk; "Ivory Tower", Kay Anderson; Rev. Jack Parsons, the speaker, stressing, "Our Thankfulness For What We Have"; vocal solos, "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes" and "End of a Perfect Day", Anne Peroski; closing song, "America"; Benediction, Rev. Richard Peterson.

The guest list also included Mrs. Parsons, Mrs. Richard Peterson, Mrs. Dewey Yale, Father Boysak.

Members of the Ladies Aid of Bethany Lutheran church will meet Thursday afternoon at 2:30 in the church parlors. Hostesses will be Mrs. R. C. Cederlof and Mrs. Carl Larson.

Mrs. Cora Kennard returned to Ellwood City Saturday, accompanied by Mrs. Robert Anderson, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. George Peterson, who remained for the weekend.

Vincent Johnson returned home Monday after spending several days in Buffalo, Cleveland and Erie.

No Postseason Bowl Games For Texas A. & M. or Miami Univ.

Detroit (P) — No postseason bowl games for Texas A. & M. and University of Miami football powers.

Probation periods ranging from nine months to four years for North Carolina State, Ohio State, Southern California and the University of California.

Such was the stern edict issued by the council of the National Collegiate Athletic Association yesterday as it concluded a lengthy investigation into reported athletic irregularities at member schools.

The council, powerful policy directing body of the NCAA, turned down requests by Texas A. & M. and Miami to suspend probations that prevent them from accepting bids to bowl games New Year's Day. Both probations carry into 1957, Miami's by only 10 days.

The Texas Aggies have all but clinched the Southwest Conference title and were expected to perform as host team in the Cotton Bowl. Eighth-ranked Miami, an independent, was considered a top prospect for the Sugar Bowl or Gator Bowl.

Walter Byers, NCAA executive secretary, said it was "general policy" of the council to let probationers run their full course.

The four schools placed on probation join 11 other collegiate "bad boys" currently serving out NCAA penalties. All were accused of offering or extending illegal aid to athletes.

North Carolina State, which only last year ended a one-year probation that kept it out of the 1955 NCAA Basketball Championships, drew the longest penalty ever handed out by the council—four years.

American Athletes Approach Record Form For Olympics

Melbourne (P) — American track and field athletes have recovered from numerous ills and injuries and are approaching their record breaking form at the Olympic trials of last June.

This was the reassuring word of coach James Kelly today as his squad put on one of its best workouts in preparation for the games of the sixteenth olympiad starting Nov. 22.

Kelly was especially pleased with the god form shown by half-miler Arnie Sowell and sprinter Bobby Morrow, two of Uncle Sam's erstwhile "cripples."

It has not been generally known that Sowell was laid up for a time last summer. The University of Pittsburgh track star, who is counted on, with Tom Courtney, to lead the procession in the 800-meter run, was on crutches in August. He sprained his ankle playing three-man basketball.

Sowell's mishap cut his weight down seven pounds, a serious thing for a young man whose 5-foot, 10-inch frame normally carries only 135 pounds.

The Pitt star said he was feeling "real good" now and Kelly noted he seemed to have his old bounce back.

Morrow, who has been thought to have a good chance of scoring a double in the sprints, had been ill with a virus infection but now appears fully recovered and Kelly expressed confidence that Bobby was near his peak after watching the Texas sprinter work out.

The belief is that Morrow has a good chance to win both the 100 and 200-meter dashes, particularly the 100.

Speaking of Sports . . .

Northern Area Knights ran their victory string to nine straight this season as the Blue and Gold went undefeated for eight consecutive games to take undisputed possession of the Northwestern Conference Championship which the team was co-defending this year. Added to the string this season is the final contest against Cassadaga which the Knights won in their last game in 1955. The only Northern Area defeat since 1954 was a 27-19 loss to mighty Southwestern Central at Lakewood the next to the last game of last year.

Over the past three seasons that gives head coach Norge Luvison, line coach Fred Bauer and assistant coach John Binney a record of 24-1 since 1954, a very credible rating in anybody's book.

But, as the cycle swings, Northern Area is likely to find itself in the same sort of a rebuilding fix next year which the Warren Dragons found themselves in during 1956 after graduation took its annual toll. The 1957 NA graduating class of 34 seniors is going to sweep 13 out of the entire Knight squad of 38, leaving only three returning lettermen. Bud Rowland, center and Angove at guard. Only three seniors will return to the squad and a similar number of juniors. Training nucleus will be a group of sophomores.

Northern Area scoring record this year was impressive as they ground out 250 points compared to a paltry 51 granted the opposition. The Knights averaged around 31 points per game while only two teams, Youngville and Randolph, were able to cross the NA goal line more than a single time, and they only reached paydirt twice.

Cubs' New Regime Makes Its Initial Rebuilding Move

Chicago (P) — The new regime of the Chicago Cubs made its first rebuilding move yesterday in getting third baseman Ray Jablonski in a five-player deal with Cincinnati. But as far as the club is concerned it's only "a start in the right direction."

Under newly-named general manager John Holland and manager Bob Scheffing, the last-place Cubs acquired the slugging Jablonski and pitcher Elmer Singleton from Cincinnati for pitcher Warren Hacker, infielder Don Hoak and outfielder Pete Whisenant.

Jablonski is the key man for the Cubs although Scheffing already has said Singleton, 36, a righthander who has failed in the majors previously, will be worked in as a starting pitcher.

As for Cincinnati, the Redlegs apparently are banking on Hacker, 32, and a righthander who had a 3-13 mark last season but won 15 games for the Cubs in 1952. Two other Cub castoffs—John Klipstein and Hal Jeffcoat—made good with the Redleg pitching staff.

Westminster Grid Team Nears End Of Undefeated Season

New Wilmington (P) — Students in this Lawrence County community, as well as the town folk, are hepped up over Westminster College's football team—an eleven which may wind up in one of the smaller post-season bowl games.

Westminster seems a shoe-in to defeat Carnegie Tech (3-4) here Saturday and wind up as the only undefeated college team in Pennsylvania.

The Titans, coached by Harold Burry, have one of the most outstanding records of any team in the country. They've won 27 games, lost 1 and tied 1 over the past four seasons. The last time they lost was a 6-0 decision to Tech in 1954.

Burry, now winding up his fifth year at Westminster, uses the split T-formation. In seven games this year his team has rolled up 298 points to 51 for the opposition.

Tennessee Tailback Is Picked Back of the Week

By The Associated Press

Johnny Majors, a tremendous Tennessee tailback in the tradition of George Cafego and Hank Lauricella, today was named Associated Press Back of the Week.

The 5-foot-10, 162-pound senior had few opportunities to display his offensive ability in a tight defensive battle with Georgia Tech last Saturday, but he came up with a clutch showing in a few short moments in the third period and that was all the Vols' needed for a 6-0 victory.

Tennessee, the nation's No. 1 team in The Associated Press poll, moved for its score in four plays covering 65 yards. On the second play of the series Majors hit end Buddy Cruze with a 16-yard pass, and before Tech recovered he came back on the next play to connect with Cruze again on a play that covered 45 yards, ending on the Tech one. Fullback Tommy Bronson took it over.

SPORTS IN BRIEF

Detroit — The NCAA Council placed four major colleges—North Carolina State, Ohio State, Southern California and California—on probation for terms ranging from nine months to four years and also refused to lift probations against the University of Miami (Fla.) and Texas A&M.

Chicago — The Chicago Cubs traded pitcher Warren Hacker, outfielder Pete Whisenant and third baseman Don Hoak to the Cincinnati Redlegs for third sacker Ray Jablonski and pitcher Elmer Singleton.

New York — Clifford Mooers, 67, prominent turfman and owner of the Walnut Springs Stud at Lexington, Ky., died of a heart attack at Laguardia airport field.

Castro Valley, Calif. — Art Larsen, 1950 National Amateur Champion, remained unconscious and in serious condition at Eden Hospital from injuries suffered Saturday when his motor scooter overturned.

Baltimore — Pajama Tops ($2.20) captured the Breeders' Stakes at as Pimlico opened its 29-day meeting.

New York — Miss Blue Jay ($8.10) came on fast in the stretch to win the Whitestone Handicap at Jamaica.

A. P. Sports Writer Picks Oklahoma To Win Over Missouri

San Francisco (P) — Taking a glance at the nation's football teams from the opposite coast—but there is no assurance that the view is any more revealing. Last week's Atlantic Coast inspection resulted in 34 correct selections and 13 wrong ones. That's an average of 724. The season's record is 278 right, 84 wrong and 768.

Oklahoma over Missouri: This is about as crucial as they can get in the Big Seven but Oklahoma should win by at least three touchdowns.

Georgia Tech over Alabama; Michigan State over Minnesota; Notre Dame over North Carolina; Tennessee over Mississippi; Stanford over Washington; Texas A&M over Rice.

Y. H. S. Ties With Northern Area For All-County Honors In Annual Ballot Tabulation

Frank Flisel, local sports announcer, today made public his WNAE All-County teams in the Class B Football League, which reveals Northern Area and Youngville are tied with four men each on the first, and Sheffield with three. On the second team Youngville and Sheffield are tied with four each and Northern Area with three. Overall, Youngville rates nine players, Sheffield eight and Northern Area seven.

Attention is called to the fact that the selections are based on votes of the players themselves and tabulated by Flisel and his staff.

Arnold Rowland, of Northern Area, rated the most valuable back mention and Ronald Kulbacki, Youngville, the most valuable lineman. Both will receive a trophy. Honorable mention goes to Halfast, of Youngville, and Schuler, Sheffield.

The All-County first and second teams in Class B follow in the order of position, player and school:

FIRST TEAM
Ends: Rockwell, N. Area; Miley, Sheffield.
Tackles: Kulbacki, Youngville; Welsh, N. Area.
Guards: Feeny, N. Area; Schmieden, Sheffield.
Center: Smith, Youngville.
Quarterback: Dinnity, Youngville.
Left Halfback: McNeal, Sheffield.
Right Halfback: Rowland, N. Area.
Fullback: Moniak, Youngville.

SECOND TEAM
Ends: Andrews, Sheffield; McCanna, Youngville.
Tackles: Slater, Sheffield; Dunn, Sheffield.
Guards: Darling, Youngville; Wimer, Youngville.
Center: English, N. Area.
Quarterback: Olson, N. Area.
Left Halfback: McCoy, N. Area.
Right Halfback: Breneman, Youngville.
Fullback: Johnson, Sheffield.

Kenny Lane Meets Frank Ryff at Miami Tonight

Miami, Fla. (P) — Kenny Lane and Frank Ryff, ranked lightweight who are trying for higher standings, fight tonight.

Lane, a left-hander from Muskegon, Mich., is rated a 2-1 favorite. He has beaten the only two men who defeated Ryff and is currently rated in fifth place among 135-pounders. A victory might do much to win him a title fight with the champion, Joe Brown.

Ryff, a New York fighter, is ranked ninth by the National Boxing Association and is trying to climb back to the higher ratings he once held.

Andrew Johnson, in 1866, was the first U. S. president to make a tour of the states by rail.

Public Is Invited
To Meetings of the Writer's Workshop

Warren's writers' workshop, a recently formed group that has been meeting weekly since its organization a few weeks ago, is fast developing into the type of forum its founders intended it to be. Each weekly get-together is attracting a sizeable turnout of both amateur and professional workers. The talk of writing techniques, discussion of markets, and criticism of manuscripts covers such a wide variety of writer-connected topics that the resulting coverage is bringing a rounded fullness to the groups activity.

This week's meeting will be held in the Jefferson room of the Public library this evening at 8:00 o'clock and all persons with an interest in writing, for publication or pleasure, are invited to be present.

At their last meeting the group discussed manuscripts submitted by three of its writers. Mrs. Robert Israel submitted one, a delightful essay-like composition titled "500 Clay Street," that demonstrated its true strength and beauty by getting some response from almost all of those present. The comments were all favorable, yet it was a matter of varied opinion among the critics as to whether the "house" or its "occupant" should have the lead role, but there was no question among those of either view as to the work's decided and definite value.

Andy Yurick submitted two manuscripts. His first, a skit intended for TV personality use, depicted a person, such as Steve Allen, demonstrating the uses of that valuable household tool "the plumber's friend" to a group of do-it-yourself enthusiasts. This was generally accepted as "it stood" by the critics, and several commented on its overall high-humor. Mr. Yurick's second piece, somewhat of a bathtub soliloquy, brought out a mixed reaction and came in for a lengthy discussion.

Mrs. David Potter read a manuscript, concerning a boy's childhood adventure, for a member who was out of town and could not, therefore, be present.

Episcopal House of Bishops Holds Meeting

The Rt. Rev. William Critten-den, D. D., Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Erie, is attending a special session of the House of Bishops of the Episcopal Church scheduled for this week at Pocono Manor, Mt. Pocono. Some 125 bishops of the Episcopal Church comprise the roster of those who will attend. The sessions will begin with a Quiet Day for the Bishops and their wives. Mrs. Critten-den will accompany the Bishop and take part in the Quiet Day.

Among the important items on the agenda will be the election of a new bishop for the Missionary District of Idaho, a report on the work of the American Churches in Europe, the consideration of the formation of a new district in Central America and the consideration whether or not to provide a bishop for the Armed Forces. Other matters to be discussed will be that of the divorce problem and the function of the Perpetual Deacon in the Church.

The meeting will be presided over by the Rt. Rev. Henry Knox Sherrill, D. D., Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church.

Charter Member Gives
Talk at Lions Meeting

Holding its weekly luncheon-meeting Tuesday at the YWCA activities building, Lions Club was very happy and proud to have as speaker one of its own members, Harold "Shorty" Miller.

Lion Miller, one of the charter members of the local service club, spoke on "The Heritage of Warren Lionism", outlining and discussing historical events in the growth of the club.

Younger members, in particular, were pleased to learn of the many accomplishments of their group and certainly much credit is due the older members for the success of the organization.

James Nordine announced the "water" team is still ahead in the attendance contest. He also reminded members the annual Ladies' Night will be held Thursday evening, November 29, at the YWCA.

IN APPRECIATION

I wish to thank all my neighbors, friends and church members who sent me cards, flowers and gifts and who paid me visits in my recent sickness and the many acts of kindness shown Mrs. Borger and myself.

Rev. John A. Borger
